

Corado Peter Agresti

December 27, 1930 - July 9, 2020

EAST BRUNSWICK - CORADO PETER AGRESTI passed away peacefully on Thursday, July 9, 2020, at his residence. He was 89.

Born in Fairview, he grew up in Tenafly, lived in Germany, before moving to East Brunswick sixty years ago. A graduate of Tenafly High School, Corado continued his studies in Restaurant & Hotel Management at Michigan State University, graduating in 1954. Afterwards, he served our country honorably in the US Army as a distinguished Marksman.

Corado was employed as the Food Service Manager for Rutgers University in New Brunswick for over thirty years, retiring in 1996.

He was an avid outdoorsman, enjoying sports activities throughout the year. This included fly fishing, golfing and cross-country skiing. He was also an exceptional athlete.

He is predeceased by his sister, Lydia Paterno, who passed away in 2018.

Corado is survived by his devoted wife of 62 years, Anna (Petrasek) of East Brunswick, and by two sons, Thomas, of Boise ID, and Michael and his wife, Kathleen, of Milwaukee WI.

Services were private, under the direction of The BRUNSWICK MEMORIAL HOME, East Brunswick. To leave a message of condolence, please see our "tributes" page.
