

Victor Salvat

Had long career as electrician; 'man of many loves' and deep faith

Victor Salvat, 72, of Middletown, N.J., died on November 3, 2020, in Holmdel, N.J. He was born in Arrecibo, Puerto Rico, to the late Julio and Francisca (nee Morales) Salvat.

He worked as an electrician for several contractors, as well as in his own business, but he spent the majority of his career working for Rutgers University.

Victor was a man of many loves. He enjoyed gardening and cooking. He loved his family deeply. He loved his job, both performing electrical servicing and teaching others. He adored his dog, Teeco, his best friend and his constant companion. Vic also enjoyed music and movies. He was an avid Mets fan and loved boxing, he was also an amateur boxer in his youth.

Vic was a deeply religious man with an abiding faith in God. And now he is reunited in the arms of the love of his life, his wife, Dorothy.

Surviving are his daughter, Tracy Bender; son, Victor Salvat Jr. and his fiancée, Jodie Keener; brother, Carmelo Salvat; two sisters, Lucy Salvat and Rosemarie Salvat; and his heart children, Beth and Albert Scutto, Jaime and Grace Torres, and Charles and Amy Kincaid, and his dear family friends, Gail Torres and Darlene and Norbith Rodriguez

Victor was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Dorothy Salvat, in 2013, and his brother, Julio Salvat Jr.

A graveside service will be held Wednesday, November 11, 2020, at 11 a.m., at Shoreland Memorial Gardens, Hazlet, N.J.

Arrangements are under the direction of John F. Pflieger Funeral Home, Middletown.
