Andre L. Laws

NOVEMBER 11, 1970 – FEBRUARY 21, 2021

Andre L. Laws, 50, was born on November 11, 1970 in Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, NJ. He was the second son of two children born to Sharon H. Laws. Andre was educated in the Plainfield School system. On Sunday, February 21, 2021, Andre made his transition from his walk of life. He was preceded in death by parents, Burt and Pearl Laws and biological mother, Sharon Laws. Left to cherish his memories are his wife, Sacha Laws; his sons, Andre Tyler and Lorenzo Andre; grandson, William; sister, Shanda-Joy Laws; nephews, Travis Myers, and Vance Overby (Alicia); niece, Whitney Overby; aunt and uncle, Bruce and Indira Brown and a host of loving family and friends. Growing up, Andre was famous for his fearlessness and daredevil skills, his knack for taking electronics apart, putting them back together and making sure that whatever he 'fixed' worked better than ever! This led to his training at DeVry University and honing his skills into becoming an exceptionally skilled HVAC-R technician and later, founder of The Laws of Comfort. Taking his skills to the corporate world he joined the staff at Rutgers University and finished out his days keeping their systems up and running across the Newark Campus. A bigger than life personality, Andre loved his family, friends and life. Always eating, looking out for others and bringing a smile to everyone's faces were trademarks of who he was. His laugh was infectious and no matter what, he was famous for asking "You good? You need anything? You know, I got you!" May he rest in eternal peace...
